The oldest Protestant churches, such as the Unitas Fratrum and Moravian Church, date their origins to Jan Hus (John Huss) in the early 15th century. As it was led by a Bohemian noble majority, and recognised, for a time, by the Basel Compacts, the Hussite Reformation was Europe's first "Magisterial Reformation" because the ruling magistrates supported it, unlike the "Radical Reformation ...

For the unchurched, or "œnonones," the language of becoming a disciple is entering a new world of practices, habits, and relationships. For the dechurched, or "œdones," the path of discipleship requires a detachment from negative experiences of church in the past and a turning toward the gift of new forms of church.

The distribution of wealth is a comparison of the wealth of various members or groups in a society.It shows one aspect of economic heterogeneity.. The distribution of wealth differs from the income distribution in that it looks at the economic distribution of ownership of the assets in a society, rather than the current income of members of that society. . According to the International ...

One primary impediment to the reconciliation of Protestants and Catholics concerns the doctrine of justification. Protestants endorse justification by faith alone (sola fide), while the Council of Trent condemned justification by faith alone. (Session 6, Canon 9) The question I ask here is this: Is there any Biblical evidence for "justification by faith alone"?
